Program Overview

Corning – Steuben Leadership Program is sponsored by the Corning Area Chamber of Commerce and Corning Community College. This program will provide an experiential learning curriculum that is designed for individuals, with a proven desire and commitment to enhancing their skills and knowledge, in preparation for obtaining critical leadership roles in their professional and personal lives. Participants are selected and approved by the chamber on the basis of ability, leadership, potential, interest in the community, willingness to commit the time and energy to complete the program, and have the full support of the corporation or organization represented. It is recommended that each student be assigned an organizational mentor to help guide and reinforce the curriculum. All mentors will be invited to attend the program's orientation.
