

Class of '60 Scholarship

The Class of 1960, CCC's first graduating class, established this scholarship in the hope of extending its legacy to future generations of Corning Community College students. The Class of '60, a student mix of ages and backgrounds, set the course, developed a community, and began the traditions of our institution. Their spirit is evidenced in their desire to foster and reward commitment to the College. Many from the class went on to receive advanced degrees, but all share in remembering where they got their start. They came to CCC seeking the educational opportunity to improve themselves and having succeeded, they wish to give that opportunity to others. Available to Fall Semester, new entering students only. This scholarship is available to:

- Someone experiencing college for the first time and who most parallels the college experience of the students in the Class of 1960
- A traditional or non-traditional student enrolled full-time or part-time entering in the Fall semester
- Applicants who have completed registration for enrollment at CCC for the following Fall semester

The student may be requested to provide additional information such as: the student's academic goal(s), current income, and any other information that would be pertinent to the application.

Award Amount: $500
