

The Mark Adessa Fund

The purpose of this scholarship is to provide a fund to assist students in acquiring tools needed for coursework in the Automotive Technology programs. The funds granted can be used to buy tools needed relating to engine and engine performance, fuel system, electrical, drive train and alignment coursework.

To be eligible, a student must:

- Be a Corning Community College student enrolled in an Automotive Technology program

Award Amount:* $500

Application Due:* No Application, selected by the College